"Quite frankly, automakers keep making it easier to pay them less," said Jack R. Nerad, executive editorial director and executive market analyst for Kelley Blue Book's KBB.com. "While many inexpensive cars are decidedly uncool, the world's manufacturers are putting more personality and distinction into their lower-priced offerings. Not only have small cars never looked so good, but they have also never been more filled with cool content. Take the Hyundai Veloster that is No. 1 on our list this year because of its highly unique exterior design coupled with a stylish and tech-laden interior."

Two criteria -- fun-to-drive and fun-to-own -- are critical among the deciding factors of what the editors freely admit is a very subjective "cool factor," the over-arching number-one criterion for a vehicle to place on this list. Each vehicle is available for purchase at $18,000 or less, using Kelley Blue Book's exclusive Fair Purchase Price as the yardstick (Kelley Blue Book's Fair Purchase Price is the price consumers typically are paying a dealer for a new car, based on actual new-vehicle transactions and adjusted regularly for changing market conditions).
