While the marketplace of new sedans in the sub-$25,000 price point has never been stronger, that also leaves car shoppers with more questions about which model really is right for them. In this new list on KBB.com, editors provide their insights and rank what they think are this year's 10 Best Sedans Under $25,000, ultimately naming the completely redesigned 2013 Honda Accord No. 1.

"While other mid-size cars have threatened its dominance, now we can definitively say that the Accord is back on top, with the completely overhauled 2013 model hitting No. 1 on our list of the 10 Best Sedans Under $25,000," said Jack R. Nerad, executive editorial director for Kelley Blue Book's KBB.com. "The latest Honda Accord is as refined as any previous edition, but with a newfound sense of sporty style and cool new technologies that are as user-friendly as the car itself."
