

New-Car Transaction Prices Jump Nearly 3 Percent In August 2014, According To Kelley Blue Book

General Motors Post Greatest Transaction Price Increases on SUV and Truck Lineups

IRVINE, Calif., Sept. 3, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- The analysts at Kelley Blue Book www.kbb.com, the only vehicle valuation and information source trusted and relied upon by both consumers and the automotive industry, today report the estimated average transaction price (ATP) for light vehicles in the United States was $32,495 in August 2014. New-car prices have increased by $851 (up 2.7 percent) from August 2013, while dropping $16 (0.1 percent) from last month.

"Similar to last month, trucks and full-size SUV/crossovers are driving average transaction price increases, as full-size truck transaction prices alone are up 5.5 percent," said Alec Gutierrez, senior analyst for Kelley Blue Book. "Following several redesigns, full-size SUV/crossover segment sales could have double-digit growth and transaction prices have climbed more than 7 percent in August. With a host of new models and gas prices trending downward, these will continue to be the hot vehicle segments."
