In Partnership with Actress Tia Mowry, Kelley Blue Book Experts Share the Top-Rated Family Friendly Vehicles

ATLANTA, March 15, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Today, Kelley Blue Book, a Cox Automotive company, announces the Best Family Cars of 2022 – a list of vehicle recommendations based on in-depth testing with a focus on safety, practicality and value, as well as increasingly useful connectivity, technology and driver-assist features. As one of the most impactful purchase decisions a parent will make, Kelley Blue Book understands that buying a family car requires more careful consideration than most vehicle purchases.

A family car is more than just a mode of transportation. Parents want a vehicle they can trust to protect their family

"A family car is more than just a mode of transportation. Parents want a vehicle they can trust to protect their family in the case of an accident, comes equipped with state-of-the-art technology to help avoid accidents altogether, and matches the needs of their lifestyle," said Jason Allan, director of editorial for Kelley Blue Book. "Combining our expansive vehicle review program, proprietary insights and industry data, we work to provide families with vehicle recommendations that align with their personalized needs and emphasize value through Kelley Blue Book® Fair Purchase Price and 5-Year Cost to Own information."

The Best Family Cars of 2022 include two- and three-row SUVs offering the passenger and cargo-carrying capacity that make them go-to choices, along with a full-size SUV and minivans that hold appeal for their added roominess and flexibility. Kelley Blue Book's editorial staff constantly reviews the newest cars on the market, evaluating options through many lenses to provide the most comprehensive information possible for new-car shoppers. The team also uses data from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) and Insurance Institute for Highway Safety (IIHS) to ensure recommended vehicles have top safety ratings.

To help further expand visibility for the Best Family Cars of 2022 list with parents, Kelley Blue Book has partnered with actress and mother, Tia Mowry. "As a mother of two little ones, our car has become more than just a car – it is an extension of our everyday life and something we rely on to stay safe," said Mowry. "In our family, our car is where we enjoy singing along to our favorite songs and take time to connect in between the craziness of activities and school which are the moments I value the most! Having a resource like Kelley Blue Book that provides reliable safety information to help choose the best car for my family is so important since my children's safety is a top priority."
